

Evaluation and validation

LL4S – Task 6

Radka Kalcheva

An Overview

- 69 cases have been reported

Varna, 24-28 May, 2010

Evaluation criteria

- Who is the activity being addressed? – seniors / staff
- User influence on activities + Feedbacks
- Experience working with Web 2.0 tools
- European dimension - work on a Partnership level
- Transferability
- ‘Quality’ of the evaluation form

Varna, 24-28 May, 2010

FLISS template

- Feed-back from Learning In Social Services
- Ability to adapt and transfer activities originally designed for different target groups and different environments.
- A data-base containing descriptions of all good practices has been developed.

Varna, 24-28 May, 2010

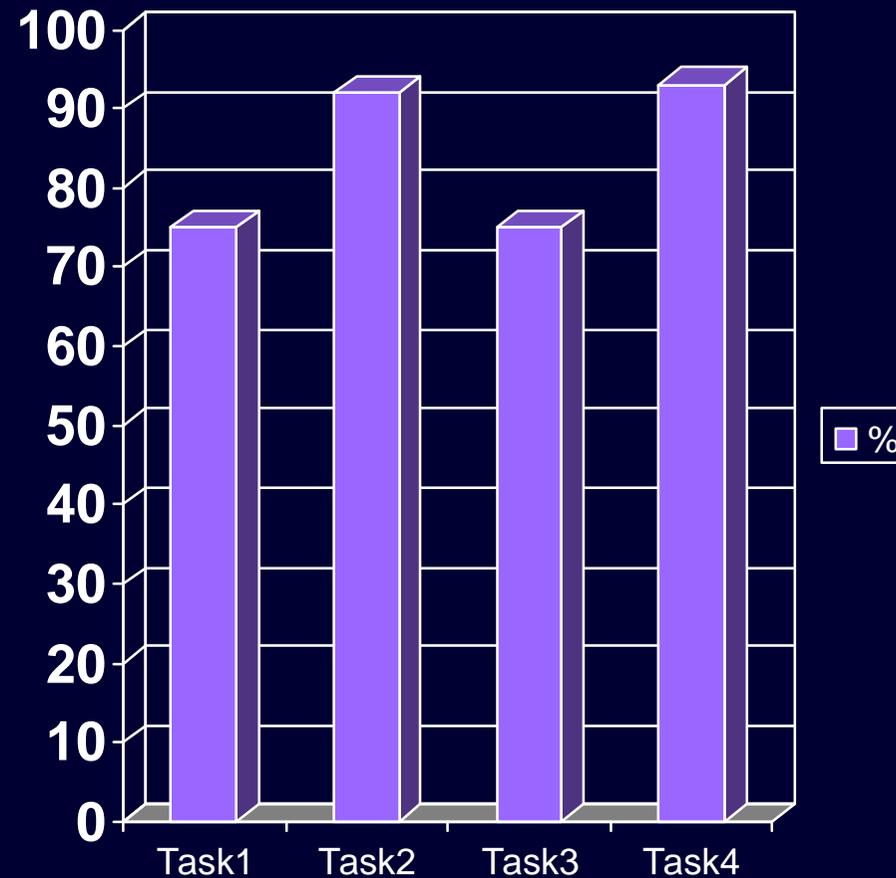

The European context

- Regular evaluation and assessment process make staff more experienced and feel more confident.
- The staff has become more experienced in working with the interests of the seniors and in the identification of the achieved results.

Varna, 24-28 May, 2010

Evaluation of the activities for seniors

Varna, 24-28 May, 2010

Aspects of assessment

- All partners report that this special design of the template has helped them
 - n to develop Best Practice or Next Practice
 - n to discover how the activity could be run in their local (urban or rural) environment

Varna, 24-28 May, 2010

Analysis of Task 6

- General Experiences
 - n Staff
 - n Seniors
- Impact on target groups
- Suggestion to promote further development